Cover photo: The Scott County Courthouse at Benton, located almost at the geographic center of the county, is the fifth seat of county government on the same site. Completed in December, 1913, at a cost of $100,000, the T-shaped building is reinforced concrete with brick facing and terra cotta trim. The center section is three stories tall, 56 by 122 feet, and the wings are two stories, 52 by 55 feet. Six large columns and the state seal distinguish the front entrance. In September, 1982, the county court removed the front steps and sidewalk to construct wider steps with handrails and ramps to accommodate the handicapped. A recent appraisal of the 88-room structure set its value at $1,972,545.
